Discover Machu Picchu's Secrets on the Ultimate Guided Tour

You'll wake up early to have a good breakfast before boarding the bus to Machu Picchu. We like to leave early to avoid the large crowds of tourists. Once inside, you'll watch the sunrise over the incredible site and then have a guided tour of approximately two hours to the most important sites. Afterward, you'll have the possibility to climb the additional mountains if you booked in advance. Then, you'll descend by bus to the town of Aguas Calientes.

In the town, you'll have some time to find a restaurant for lunch before making your way to the train station. You'll board the train to Ollantaytambo. From there, our transportation will take you back to your accommodation in Cusco. It'll now be time for some well-deserved rest.
