THE EXPERIENCE

A Journey Through the Heart of the Inca Empire

ENGLISH

Beyond the fame of Machu Picchu lies a world equally extraordinary — the Sacred Valley of the Incas. This full-day journey takes you through a living landscape where ancient terraces still shelter villages, and centuries-old markets pulse with color and tradition.

From the imposing fortress of Ollantaytambo to the vibrant artisan market of Pisac, from a sunlit buffet in Urubamba to the textile weavers of Chinchero — every stop on this path reveals a different facet of Andean culture, heritage, and beauty. This is not just a tour. This is a passage through time.

ESPAÑOL

Más allá de la fama de Machu Picchu existe un mundo igualmente extraordinario: el Valle Sagrado de los Incas. Este recorrido de un día completo te lleva por un paisaje vivo donde terrazas milenarias aún cobijan pueblos, y mercados centenarios vibran con color y tradición.

Desde la imponente fortaleza de Ollantaytambo hasta el animado mercado artesanal de Pisac, desde un almuerzo buffet en Urubamba hasta las tejedoras de Chinchero — cada parada revela una faceta distinta de la cultura y la belleza andina. Esto no es solo un tour. Es un viaje a través del tiempo.

DAY 01

Cusco → Qorao · Sacred Valley Lookout · Pisac · Urubamba (Lunch) · Ollantaytambo · Chinchero → Cusco

ENGLISH — Explore the Heart of the Sacred Valley

Your day begins with a comfortable hotel pickup and a scenic drive to Qorao, where a lively local market offers the perfect introduction to Andean life. From there, you'll enjoy spectacular panoramic viewpoints of the Sacred Valley before descending into Pisac — a place of dual wonders. Explore the kaleidoscopic artisan market, then ascend to the archaeological complex that crowns the hillside with terraces, temples, and ceremonial baths.

A delicious buffet lunch in Urubamba offers a moment of rest before the afternoon's centerpiece: Ollantaytambo. This is the last living Inca town in Peru, where its residents still inhabit the original Inca-period buildings. Walk through its stone corridors and climb the monumental terraced fortress, where the Incas famously held off the Spanish in 1536.

The final stop is Chinchero, at over 3,760 meters. Witness a breathtaking colonial church built atop Inca foundations and experience a live demonstration of traditional natural-dye textile weaving — an art passed from mother to daughter for generations. You'll then return to Cusco in the evening.

ESPAÑOL — El Corazón del Valle Sagrado de los Incas

Su día comienza con el recojo desde su hotel y un recorrido por el Valle Sagrado de los Incas. La primera parada será Pisac, donde visitará su impresionante complejo arqueológico y su tradicional mercado artesanal. Después de un delicioso almuerzo buffet en Urubamba, explorará Ollantaytambo, considerado el último pueblo inca viviente y hogar de una imponente fortaleza.

La experiencia finaliza en Chinchero, famoso por su iglesia colonial construida sobre bases incas y por sus demostraciones de tejido tradicional andino. Al finalizar el recorrido, retornará a Cusco.
